and lacks extraordinary qualities, a C, the work was done, but barely fulfills the requirement. Anything below a C would reflect serious incompleteness or a pattern of lateness or sloppiness. No incomplete will be given. Irregular attendance (a set of two unexcused absences - without doctor's notification), or repeated lateness will bring down your grade by a full mark. If absent, it is still your responsibility to keep in touch and forward your assignment to me on the day of class. There might be also a few quizzes which can act as leverage towards the final grade.

People have got to think. Thinking isn't to agree or disagree, that's voting. Robert Frost
Forum Discussions (6)

- Class Notes
  While this may be a good reference, you will learn MUCH more if you take your own notes, guaranteed. Thanks to those helping out here.
  Started by you

- The Violin
  Why would I want you to view The Violin? Which elements - be precise - stand out and make the viewing experience a "time-in" (instead of a...
  Started by you

- In the Mood for Love - the deleted scenes
  Why one would delete certain scenes? Two whys? Why would you want to do the same with your project? Give me concrete examples of what you...
  Started by you

- Your skeleton of an idea (no stick figures!)
  This will consists of words at this point, but soon will be replace by either your second animated piece (that could SELL your Idea), and ... Started by you

- Mutum
  Why would I want you to view Mutum? Which elements - be precise - stand out and make the viewing experience a "time-in" (instead of a "tim... Started by you

- In the Mood for Love (first discussion)
  What stands out that you appreciate in this film? Which elements and techniques are you hoping to be able to use for your final piece? Have ... Started by you

Sort by: Latest Activity